

Gerund or Infinitive After Adjectives

After these adjectives , we use the gerund forms of the Verbs

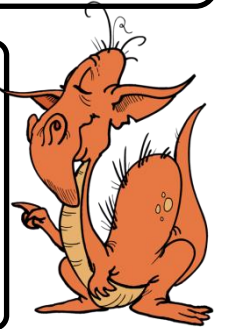

- afraid of
- angry about / at
- bad at
- busy
- Clever at
- Crazy about
- disappointed about
- excited about

- impressed by
- interested in
- keen on
- like
- famous for
- fond of
- glad about
- good at

- sick of
- sorry about
- tired of
- worried about
- worth
- near
- proud of

Sample Sentences

- I can't come now. I'm busy repairing the tap.
- The students are tired of studying for the exam.
- She will enter the competition. It's worth trying.
- My father is good at solving crossword puzzles.

After these adjectives , we use the infinitive forms of the Verbs

- amazed
- amazing
- angry
- astonished
- astonishing
- awkward
- brave
- Careless
- Clever
- cowardly
- crazy
- delighted
- difficult
- disappointed

- disgusted
- easy
- extraordinary
- funny
- generous
- glad
- happy
- hard
- honest
- horrified
- impossible
- kind
- nice
- odd

- pointless
- relieved
- ridiculous
- rude
- sad
- selfish
- silly
- sorry
- strange
- stupid
- surprised
- wicked
- wise

Sample Sentences

- It's impossible to breathe under water.
- She was horrified to see a rat in the bedroom.
- I find it difficult to drive a lorry or bus.
- The boss was happy to see all the work done.
- This problem is not easy to solve. Give me some more time.

