PHRASAL VERBS: GO

- go after (follow)
- go after (try to achieve)
- go ahead (start)
- go out (leave home for an event)
- go out with (date)
- go without (back something)
- go against (oppose)
- go back (return)
- GO OVER! (visit someone nearby)
- GO OVER! (review)

Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of the phrasal verbs below

- Mr. Tower is ________ the new school project. He doesn’t want any mistakes.
- Father and daughter ________ home after they had a nice time ice-skating out.
- Did you hear that Lucy is ________ William and they really love each other?
- Look! That brown dog a ________ a bone because he is very hungry.
- Christopher ________ his dreams and he became a well-known singer and guitarist.
- Richard ________ and had his dinner at a restaurant yesterday evening.
- Our school team is ________ the Riverdale School team.
- The runner should ________ or he will lose the race.
Mr. Tower is going over the new school project. He doesn’t want any mistakes.

Father and daughter went back home after they had a nice time ice-skating out.

Did you hear that Lucy is going out with William and they really love each other?

Christopher went after his dreams and he became a well-known singer and guitarist.

Look! That brown dog is going after a bone because he is very hungry.

Our school team is going against the Riverdale School team.

Mr. Tumbler is going without sleep nowadays because he is working on an important project.

Richard went out and had his dinner at a restaurant yesterday evening.

The runner should go ahead or he will lose the race.

We and Mr. Steam went over to Jack’s house to say “get well soon”